Dear Governor Cooper,
Please do all you can to oppose and stop the advancement of the Atlantic Coast Pipeline. I trust you are familiar with all the issues involved: the sheer power of the industries pushing for approval, and the scientific reality that with demand for oil and gas declining there is no defensible economic argument for the pipeline.

Not to mention, the relentless dumping of tons of greenhouse gases into the atmosphere brings the tipping point to catastrophe closer and sooner. The oil and gas industries need to decline, howling and screaming, into submission and compliance -- now, not someday.

Thanks.
